Who is likely to choose this type of investment?

Mid-cap investments may be most appropriate for someone seeking higher potential returns over time and willing to weather market downturns. Mid-cap stocks may be more volatile than large-cap stocks but with potentially higher return.

S&P Style Description

Equity Mid Cap Growth

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks long-term growth of capital. It normally invests at least 65% of its assets in common stocks of mid-sized companies. The advisor actively manages the fund, focusing on mid-cap companies with high growth potential that also are favorably priced relative to the growth expectations for that company. Mid-sized companies are defined as companies that are included in the Russell Midcap Index during the most recent 11-month period (based on month-end data) plus the most recent data during the current month.
